7 nights for 8 guests

Offering refined yet luxurious comfort, Serengeti House boasts uninterrupted views over the Serengeti plains and its extensive outdoor dining decks provide ideal vantage points from where to observe the daily wildlife activity at the busy waterhole nearby. A calming neutral palette of sun-bleached blonde, beige and grey reflects the surrounding wilderness throughout this luxurious modern-African home, which is perfectly suited for friends or families seeking the utmost exclusivity and flexibility - and the space to reconnect with each other and nature. Laidback luxury underpins the décor and design and each of the four boldly proportioned suites feature serene views, spacious en-suite bathrooms, outdoor showers and private terraces.

Activities & experiences

- Private dinners tailored to specific guest/group preferences.
- Guided bush walks.
- Stargazing.
- Private cooking classes with the onsite chef in Serengeti House's modern eat-in kitchen.
- Cocktail-making sessions in Serengeti House's private bar.
- Guided yoga and mindfulness sessions.
- Learning the art of tracking animals in the bush.
- Guided hikes to one of Singita Grumeti's Observation Points (OPs), where the Grumeti Fund's Anti-Poaching Scouts are based. Each OP features spectacular views of the sweeping Serengeti Plains and makes for a perfect setting to enjoy a picnic.
- Outdoors cross-fit training sessions with the anti-poaching scouts.
- Private onsite facilities for guests: yoga, fitness centre, 25-metre lap pool, private tennis court and pavillion, tented treatment suite and media room.
- Tailormade no-touch wellness treatments combining soothing, pampering products and carefully curated rituals. Guests are guided to connect with nature as they revive body, mind and soul and the treatments include sound therapy, aromatherapy, as well as harnessing the nurturing properties of Africa's unique textures and tastes.
